CELLAR SELECT

Prisoner Cuttings Cabernet 70

A powerful Cabernet Sauvignon, the 2014 Cuttings makes an excellent argument that California Cabernets supported by non-Bordeaux grape varieties, can be quite attractive. This wine exhibits ripe berries, roasted earth, and oak accents. Its ultra-rich character pairs it well with a thick New York steak.

The Prisoner Red Blend 65

This red blend features enticing aromas of bing cherry, espresso, and roasted fig. Persistent flavors of ripe raspberry, pomegranate and wild berry linger harmoniously for a smooth and luscious finish.

Simi Landslide Cabernet 55

This Cabernet is an impressive bottling of well-distributed wine, blended with smaller percentages of all the major red Bordeaux varieties (plus 1% Tannat). Spicy clove, leather, cedar and herb hints highlight its subdued red fruit. The tannins are grippy and oak quite present, but both provide welcome structure and strength.

Belle Glos Dairyman Pinot Noir

Smooth as silk—a common comment often attributed to this grape variety—the 2015 Dairyman pinot noir exhibits excellent and enticing ripe berry flavors. The wine's density on the palate pairs it well with full-flavored meat dishes.

Duckhorn Merlot 60

Burly and brawny in tar and leather, this muscular merlot is showy and yet totally delicious. It's worthwhile and hard to resist in its full embrace of smoky oak, black-cherry liqueur and blackberry jam. Soft and succulent, with a robust finish.

Cakebread Cabernet 110

Sizable, tightly woven tannin wraps itself around black fruit with moderate acidity in this thick, tangy wine, which has 9% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Franc and 3% Petit Verdot within the blend. Given less than two years in French oak, 60% of it new, it's an approachable, enjoyable wine that will also age.

Stags' Leap Cabernet 80

Small amounts of Malbec, Merlot, Petite Sirah and Petit Verdot punctuate this well-made wine, layered in red currant and cassis, with classic highlights of cedar and graphite. Softly integrated tannin and oak provide approachability, before a powerful, lingering finish.

Blindfold White Blend 55

This big, brawny white blend slathers its rich pear syrup and orange marmalade flavors with toasty oak and butter. All that oaky richness dominates the taste from the first whiff to the lingering finish, so pair with an equally bold dish.
